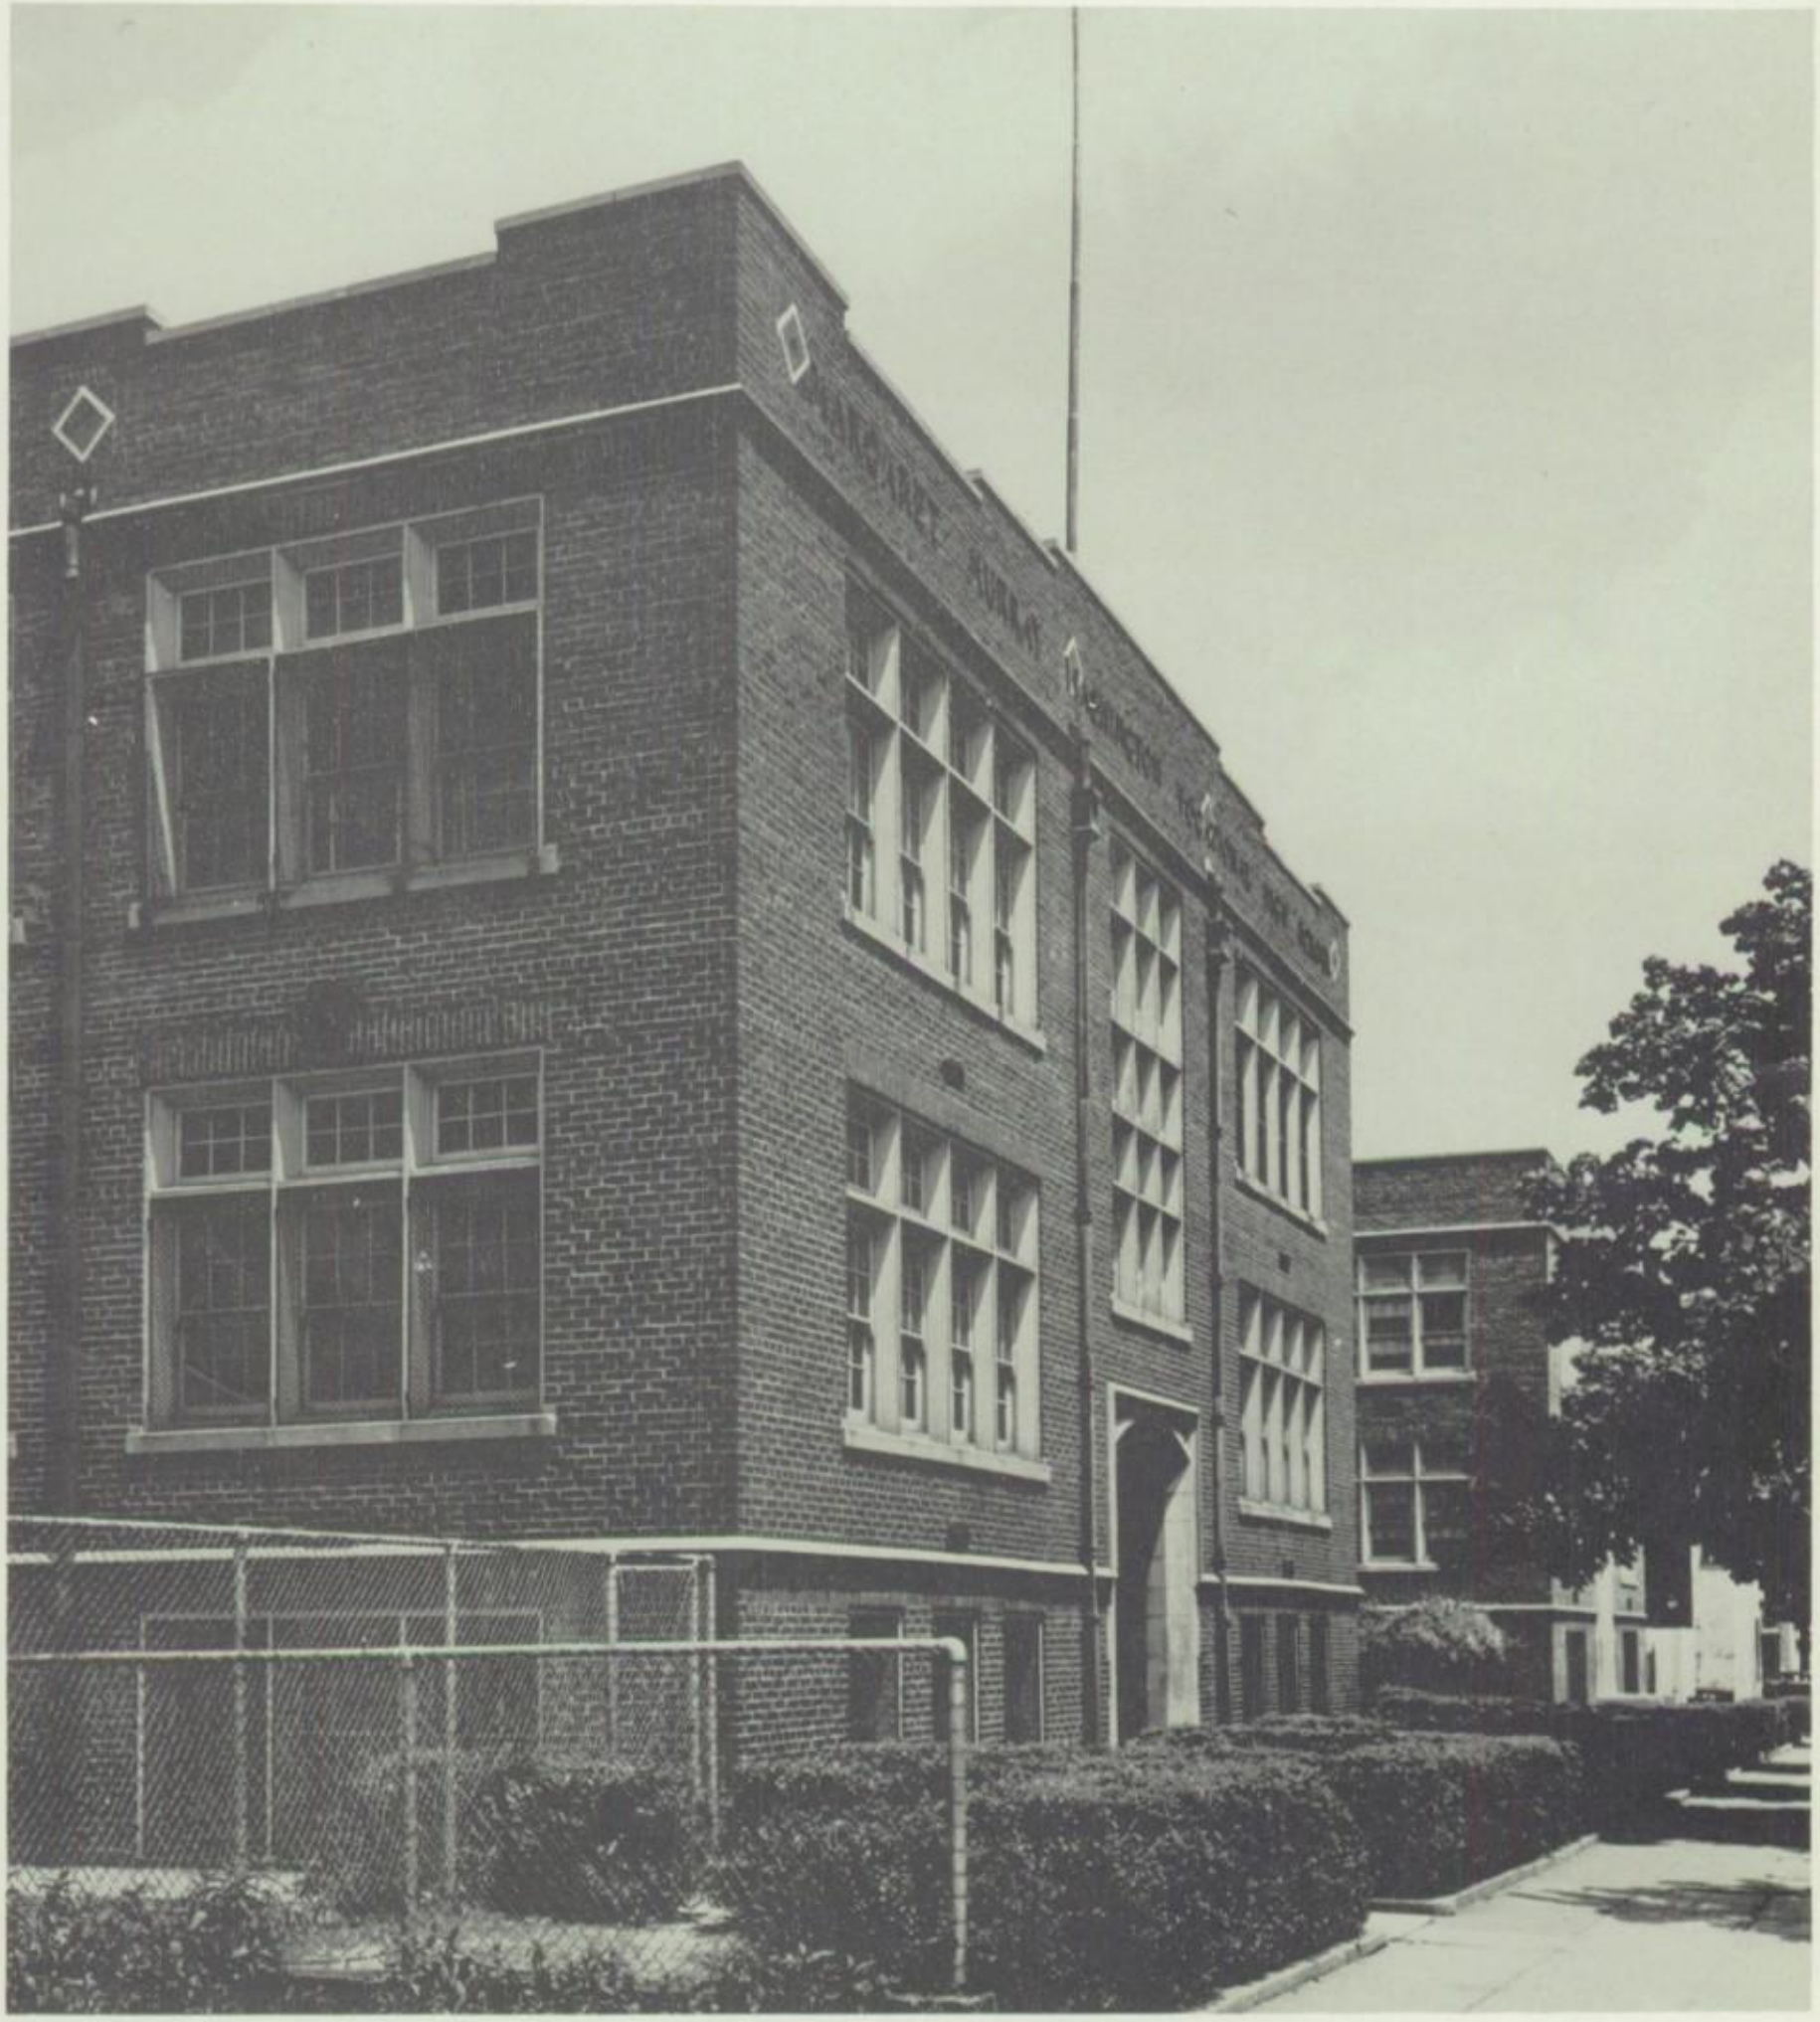
WAVOHIAN

Aboard The S.S. Margaret Washington For 181 Days



Margaret Murray Washington Vocational High School

FOREWORD

Three years have elapsed since we boarded the good vessel, S. S. Margaret Washington, to prepare for the voyage of life. These years have been full of progress, hard struggles, exciting explorations, probing experiments, puzzling predicaments, and lasting remembrances.

Within the pages of this book we have symbolized our high school days. The different trades are the various departments of the ship. Our administrators, counselor, and faculty have navigated the ship with full speed ahead. They have given guidance, direction, and leadership. They have been the moving spirit behind our activities and have aided substantially in making these past 181 days well-rounded ones. As passengers, we Seniors have completed our preparation; we are about to sail out upon the open seas where we will meet duties, and responsibilities that demand the use of knowledge gained and of skills attained.

On deck we have taken part in organizations and clubs which have provided useful and broadening experiences.

The Wavohian of 1957-1958 retraces the memory of 181 unforgettable days aboard the S. S. Margaret Washington.

Dedication

IN APPRECIATION

To Mrs. V. T. Turner — whose interests have been in the improvement of our lives — whose love and encouragement have been inspirational — we respectfully dedicate "The Wavohian" of 1958.

—THE CLASS OF 1958.

Mrs. V.T. Turner Retires

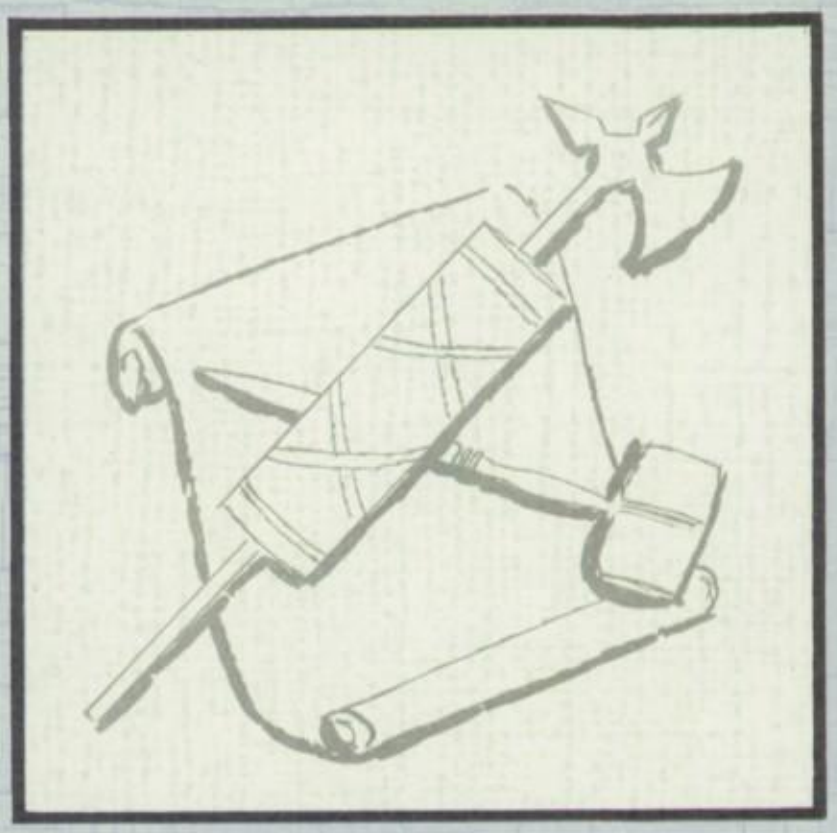
SHE WILL BE WELL REMEMBERED

Washington Vocational has fortunately shared in and profited by the thirty-four years of exceptional teaching service rendered by Mrs. V. T. Turner. Her greatest single contribution was in the field of Child Development: She set up the Child Care and Nursery Assistants Training Course at Washington Vocational. The course has become a model for others in the District and in surrounding areas. Ever mindful of the problems of youth, Mrs. Turner organized a branch of the city-wide Teen Club at this school.

Mrs. Turner's educational background was gained in the District Public Schools and at Howard University from which she earned both her A.B. and M.A. degrees; the subject selected for her thesis was: "THE ORIGIN AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE WASHINGTON VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL."

Administration



Our Captain Speaks

AROUND WASHINGTON VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL IN 181 DAYS

I wish to congratulate the members of the Class of 1958 upon successfully reaching commencement and attaining high school diplomas and trade certificates as awards.

As you ascended from the tenth to the twelfth grades, your view of the requirements, demands, difficulties, pleasures, and satisfactions of the various trade, related, and academic courses became clearer and more appreciated by you.

You have learned to acquire in varying degrees, the skills and personalities which are assets for success in the various trades.

You placed a value on each of the 181 days of your senior school year as days during which definite goals should be attained. Your graduation may be considered by you as the end of a journey; but to the faculty your departure means the beginning of a far longer trip for you into trade employment made possible through educational advantages.

We hope that your many days of future employment will be as fully appreciated by you as the 181 days of your senior year, and that each day will be productive for your employer; for you (if self-employed), and the industry in which you participate.

Here in the school we will be watching your progress with great interest and hope, and will be wishing for you speed and success in your trade endeavors.

Mrs. D. I. Miller

Staff Officers

Mrs. A. B. Smith is the Senior First Officer on our ship. She has been very much interested in the welfare of each passenger. She has assisted us in making final preparation for our voyage, giving us sincere counsel and guidance.

Miss L. N. Dodd, Chief Radio Officer, has very efficiently kept office records up to date, operated the switchboard and delivered many messages to the crew.

Mrs. Kelly, Staff Purser, orders, sorts, distributes books and supplies with a smile.

Passengers' History

Eagerly we prepared to board the S. S. Margaret Washington on September 10, 1955 by getting acquainted with teachers, trades, and fellow students. Some of the students were interested in business, foods, clothing, cosmetology, practical nursing, dry cleaning, child care, household operations and tailoring. A get-acquainted assembly, which introduced us to various clubs and organizations, provided an early thrilling experience.

Our junior year brought forth talents heretofore undiscovered. Florence Davidson and Robert Hailstock were found to have unusual singing ability; they subsequently represented us on the Pan-American Day program at the Pan-American Union Building. Florence was also presented the DAR "Citizenship Award," on February 28, 1958, on behalf of Washington Vocational School. On October 18, 1957, Robert attended "A Short Course on Yearbook Production," sponsored by Columbia Scholastic Press Association at Columbia University. Oratorical contests provided Bernice Morgan with opportunities to win honors in both her junior and senior years; also Bernice was responsible for Washington Vocational winning fourth place in the annual typing contest held for business students at Cardozo High School in 1957.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Evans, Joyce Johnson (President of the Dramatics Club), Deloris Duggans, Loretta Merritt, Catherine Johnson, and many other students connected with the Student Council, generously donated their Tuesday evenings to the young people of Junior Village. Duggans and Merritt also attended the Friends Service Committee Seminar.

Many other senior students, too numerous to be mentioned individually, have been active in clubs whose senior presidents are as follows: Girls' Athletic Association, Loretta Merritt; Student Council; Dramatics Club, Joyce Johnson; Thrift Club, Doretha Anthony; Hobby Club; Red Cross, Robert Hailstock; Citizenship Club, Bernice Morgan; Honor Society, Florence Davidson; Yearbook Staff; and Teen Club.

Plays, fun and entertainment for parties and programs have been provided from time to time by the Dramatics Club and the GAA. The latter made a trip to Gettysburg in 1957 under the sponsorship of Mrs. D. H. Locke.

The annual popularity contest for the benefit of the Wavohian each year selects among winning contestants Mrs. Margaret Washington, Miss Wavohian, and Mr. Booker T. Washington. The 1957-58 winners were Maxine Collins (Clothing), Zelda Roy, and Octivius Robinson (Foods).

Cosmetology and Clothing seniors have represented their departments in annual Fashion Shows, where their talents and imaginations were strikingly exhibited in their hair styles and smart garments.

Alas, most of us have weathered every storm, and the good ship has been brought safely through dangerous shoals by Mrs. D. L. Miller (Captain), and the good skipper, Mrs. D. M. Allen (Sponsor). We look astern and catch a gleam of the ripples of time —three hard, sad, happy, profitable years. Hail and Farewell!!

Trades

PLANNED TRAINING IS MAKING BETTER WORKERS

M. M. Washington offers systematic training in various locations. Students, through counseling, find the vocation best suited for their interests and abilities. Among the trades offered are Cosmetology, Home Nursing, Practical Nursing, Business Education, Household Operations, Tailoring, Clothing, Dry Cleaning, Foods, and Nursery Assistants.

Students learn by participating. This training helps them become worthwhile and active citizens.

Not only can one become vocational talented, but one can also find the vocational school a beginning of self-improvement along with professional advancement. Physical and social development is also acquired through the physical educational program, including clubs established by and for the same purpose.

Upon completion of the three years of hard work and training at M. M. Washington Vocational High School, a student is well prepared to meet the obligations and hardships of employment because he is "Vocationally Competent."

The Wavohian Contest

Miss Wavohian

Zelda Herlene Roy, Miss Wavohian of 1957-58, is the youngest of two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Roy.

Jefferson Junior High turned her over to us in September of 1957.

This picture shows her being crowned Miss Wavohian of 1957-58.

She likes dancing, and the spinning of Sam Cook's records by her favorite Disk Jockey, Al Jefferson. Among her record collection is "Buzz, Buzz, Buzz," "Take Me As I Am," "Raunchie," and "Silhouette."

Meal time is something else she enjoys as a favorite pastime, on the platter is fried chicken, in the glass it's coca-cola.

I am sure you will agree, that this young lady makes a very charming queen.

Mr. Wavohian

Mr. Octivious Robinson, was crowned Mr. Booker T. Washington of 1957-58.

Mrs. Wavohian

Mrs. Maxine Collins, was proudly crowned as Mrs. Margaret Murray Washington of 1957-58.
